FLOODS IMPACT

OUR INTERVENTIONS

WHAT TO EXPECT

Rainfall is still again predicted to persist over several parts of the country. (The counties which have already been affected will again be affected). Heavy rainfall storms are likely to occur in some parts of the Nairobi, Nyandarua, Laikipia, Nyeri, Kirinyaga, Murang'a, Kiambu, Meru, Embu, Tharaka-Nithi, Nandi, Kericho, Bomet, Trans-Nzoia, Uasin-Gishu, Elgeyo-Marakwet, West-Pokot, Kakamega, Vihiga, Bungoma, Siaya, Kisumu, Homabay, Busia, Migori, Kisii, Nyamira, Narok, Baringo, Nakuru, Machakos, Kitui, Makueni, Kajiado, Taita-Taveta, Turkana, Samburu, Marsabit, Mandera, Wajir, Garissa and Isiolo counties.

IMPACTS

Flooding is expected over some roads (especially on diversions, low-lying sections of the road more so on highways). -more so on underpass. Flooding is expected in low-lying areas, those in flood plains as well as in urban areas with poor drainage. - this is based on the drainage patterns for those places. Flashfloods expected over the Northern parts of Kenya (Turkana, Marsabit, Wajir, Mandera, Isiolo counties) along the seasonal 'LAGGA'.

RAIN FORECAST 1st May - 8th May

The public is advised to avoid driving through or wading in fast moving water. Those living within flood plains should remain alert as flood waters may appear even in the absence of rain.

Road-users, aviators and boat operators are advised to exercise caution.

The public are advised to avoid sheltering under trees and metallic structures to minimize exposure to lightning strikes. They are also advised to be cautious since the forecasted strong winds may damage roofs, trees, billboards.

Warning in place and marine activities on hold.
